

Letterpress Young Reader Interviews

An Interview With Isla (aged 7³/₄)

Q1. What are your earliest memories of reading books – do you have a particular book you remember from that time?

The first book I can remember is a board book about 'tying your laces' that had shoelaces through it to practice. I remember daddy reading me Matilda before I could read on my own.

Q2. What are your favourite kinds of books now?

I like chapter books now. I like the BFG, and my book I'm reading now is Isadora Moon.

Q3. Have you got a favourite author (or two)

Harriet Muncaster who writes the Isadora Moon books.

Q4. How often do you read? Is there a favourite time when you like reading best?

At night time every day and in school. I take my books from home into school to show my teacher and friends and to read. Bedtime stories are my favourite.

Q5. Are you hoping to build a book collection? How many have you got and what's your prized possession?

Yes, I have lots of books already. My best book is 'When I grow up' by Tim Minchin because we saw the show 'Matilda' and met him there and he signed it for me.
