

Letterpress Young Reader Interviews

An Interview With Seb Taylor

Q1. What are your earliest memories of reading books – do you have a particular book you remember from that time?

The earliest book I remember is "L'Elephant" a French flap book. I always have lots of books in my bed. Mummy says the first thing she bought for me when she knew I was in her tummy was a book.

Q2. What are your favourite kinds of books now?

My favourite kinds of books now are information books about knights. I have all kinds of knight books in my bedroom.

Q3. Have you got a favourite author (or two)

My favourite author is Roald Dahl because his books are funny. My favourite one is 'The Twits'. My favourite part is at the end when Mr and Mrs Twit get the dreaded shrinks.

Q4. How often do you read? Is there a favourite time when you like reading best?

I read in the mornings, at school and in my bed at night. I love reading when snuggled on the beanbag at home.

Q5. Are you hoping to build a book collection? How many have you got and what's your prized possession?

I've got lots of special books including a Robin Hood 1957 Annual from Grandad. I love the story of The Red Fox. I also have a knight book that Mummy and Papa made for me.
